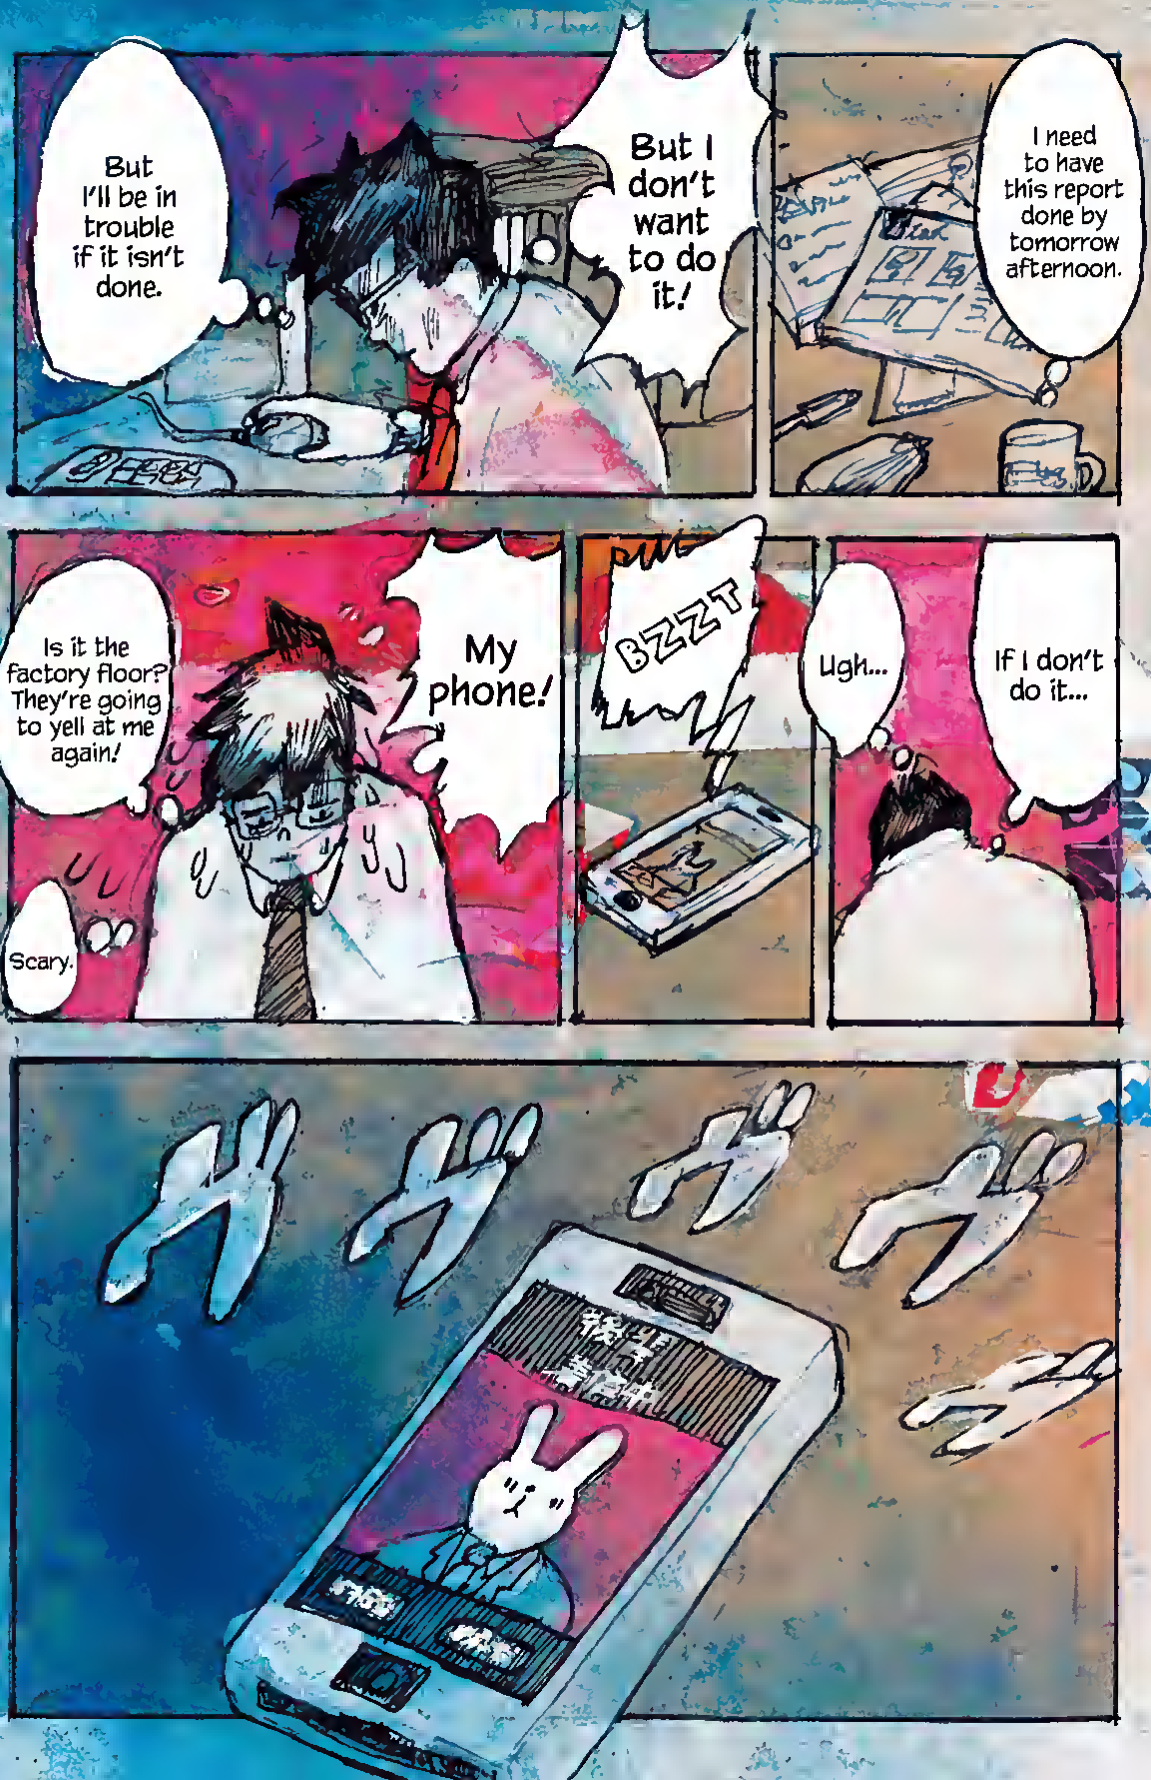
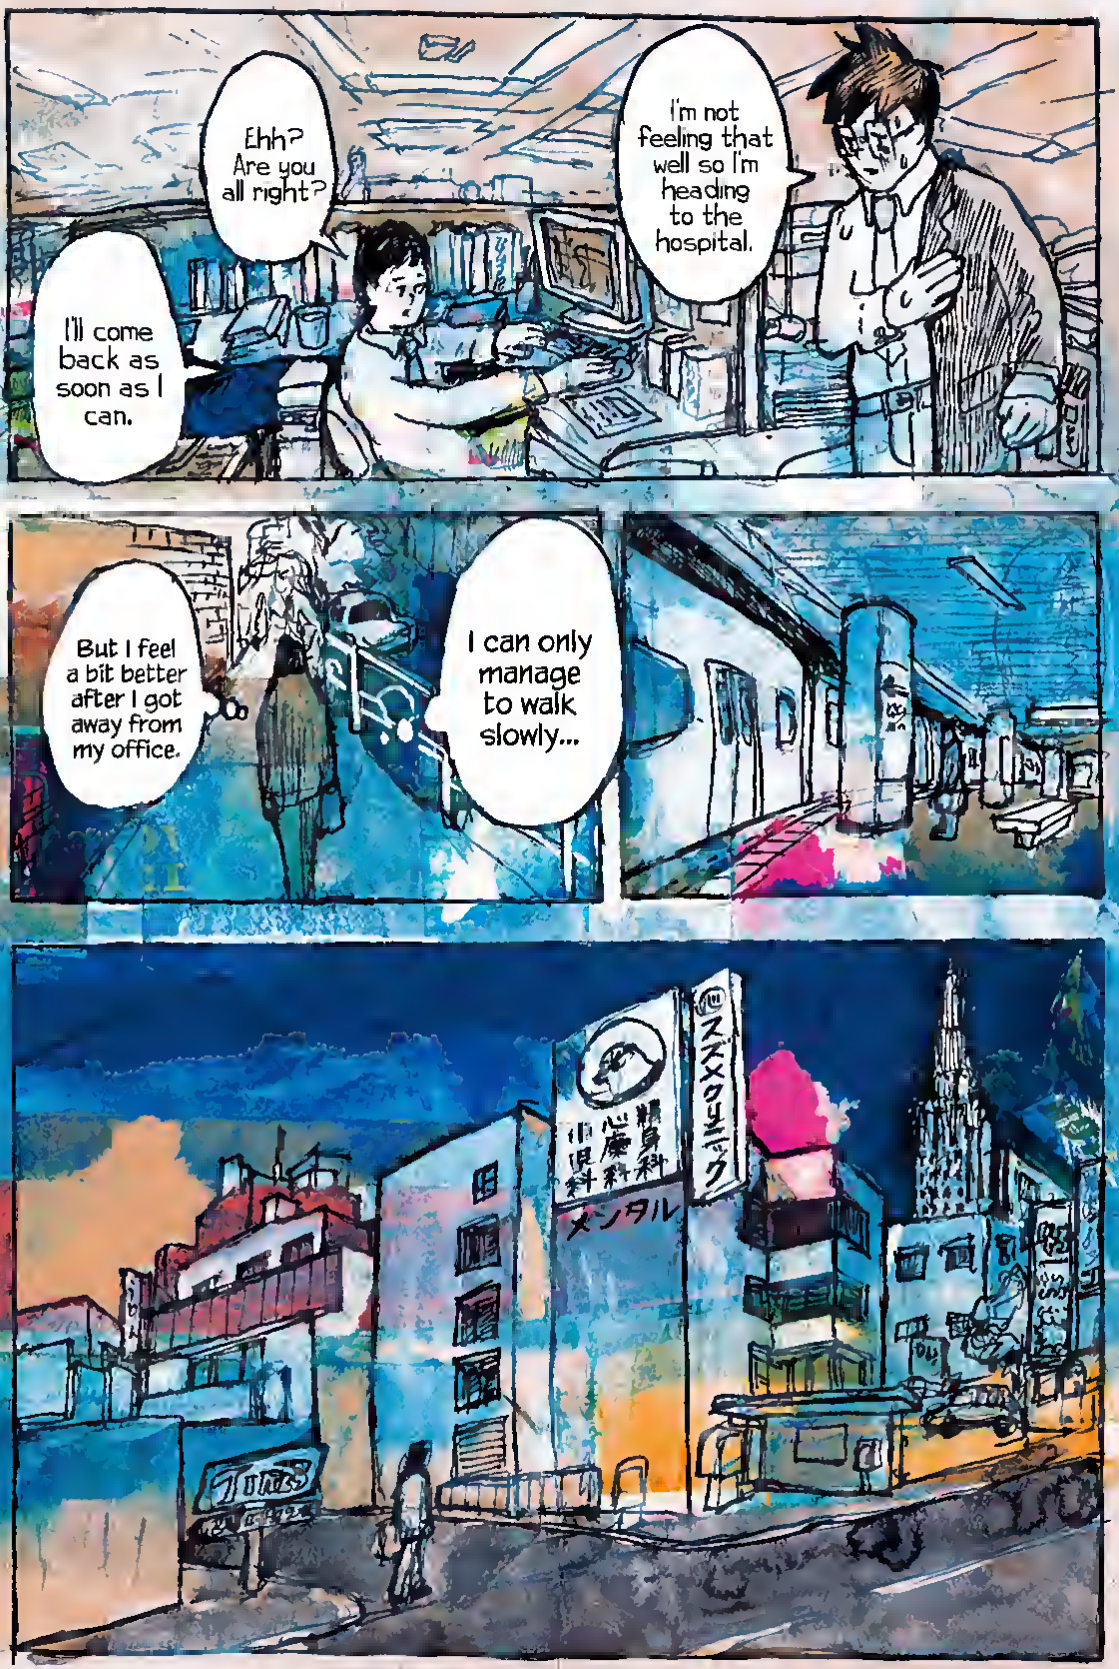
SCHEDULE.
But I can't sleep because of this painful anxiety that I have for no reason.
I still have 10 minutes left in my lunch break...
Ahh, I've got the chills.



But I'll be in trouble if it isn't done.
But I don't want to do it!
I need to have this report done by tomorrow afternoon.
Is it the factory floor? They're going to yell at me again!
Scary.
My phone!
BZZT
Ugh...
If I don't do it...

About the aquarium car we talked about...
Ah, Zajiro, are you doing okay!
What's up?
Oh, it's just my junior.
JZOLOFT JZOLOFT
It's okay, it's fine.
Even though I started taking this medicine last week, I wonder if it's really working.
Yes, yes.
Phew.
Then, if you could.

I don't feel like moving my body at all.
Crap.
HALF AN HOUR LATER.
Ughh...
I'm almost hyper-ventilating and my hands are going numb too.
Not only that,
This is really embarrass-ing!



I'm not feeling that well so I'm heading to the hospital.
Ehh? Are you all right?
I'll come back as soon as I can.
I can only manage to walk slowly...
But I feel a bit better after I got away from my office.

What can I do for you today?
Zajiro, please take a seat.
I'll write a referral for you, so how about you try seeing someone about how things are going in your office and with work?
Is that so...?
Even though I've begun taking the medicine I recieved last week,
My condition's suddenly gotten worse today.
What about your eating and sleeping habits? Sleeping well?
Okay then, I'll do that.

I have this dream every time where I'm drawing this manga that I haven't drawn before.
My sleep is pretty rough.
And it feels like there's this entire different city over there, and I'm going back and forth between the two!
Well, let's give you a little medicine to help you get an easier sleep.
Is that so?
...

Zajiro!
Ahh...
and this here is your perscription.
Here is your bill,
Take care!
